TO KENT STATERS

THE SERVICE

Today the men and women of Kent

State University are fighting America's battle—a battle which rages from the mountains of Greenland to the heat of the desert sands. Though not crusaders, they are fighting for man's right to crusade, to progress, and to maintain a realization of the "four freedoms" with which we were inalienably endowed. Therefore, to the men and women of Kent State in the service of their country, this book is most respectfully dedicated.

AND THE FUTURE

Even now as the tempest of this second world war rises to a crescendo of "blood, sweat and tears", we—the collegiate youth of today, the leaders of tomorrow—must pause to consider the complexities of a post-war era. For from this bloody conflict will emerge a world perhaps less spiritual than the idealists had hoped for but still less materialistic than the cynics had prophesied. And to the problems and policies concurrent with this world, the Youth of America will strive to adjust their personalities; personalities developed and kept flexible through the processes of logic and reasoning and clear thinking, all paramount characteristics of our present day educational system. Qualified by the colleges and universities of this country to assume this inherent leadership, let us "bear the yoke that is ours" and following a victorious conclusion to this struggle contribute our share in the shaping and preserving of a permanently peaceful world union.

ration, faculty, and student body have all unadjustments in a changing wartime collegiate world. And the of an expanded curriculum are varied technical courses, necessary to meet student and cadet requirements for military preparedness. Gone is the once carefree attitude of underclassmen, replaced by a desire for study and knowledge. Now, indeed, has Kent become a "citadel of educational democracy."

Kinder

PR. KARL C. LEEBRICK celebrated his fifth anniversary as President of Kent State University this year. Under his capable leadership, enrollment on the hilltop greatly increased during this period and many advances were made in the physical equipment and teaching force of the university. A graduate of the University of California, Dr. Leebrick's many contacts as educator, faculty member and historian all contributed in giving him the background necessary for this present position.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

OFFICERS

John R. Williams, Madison	Presiden
Joseph B. Hanan, Akron	Vice-President
Robert C. Dix, Ravenna	Secretary
Otto J. Korb, Cleveland	Treasure
Charles H. Lake, Cleveland
Kenneth C. Ray, State Director of Education, Columbus

THE Board of Trustees consists of six members, five of whom are appointed, one each year, for a term of five years, by the Governor of Ohio, "with the consent of the Senate." The sixth is the State Director of Education, a member of the Board ex-officio.

GOVERNOR OF OHIO

THE fifty-fourth governor of Ohio, John W. Bricker has become the state's most outstanding figure in national politics. From 1920, when he took his law degree at Ohio State, his life has been rather a political phenomenon, culminating with his gubernatorial election in 1938. Throughout his administration officials, faculty and friends of Kent State have found Governor Bricker a tried and true supporter to the problems of this University.

THIS year's class faced a world of strife and bitterness. Gone was the casualness of underclassmen; replaced by a desire for service and knowledge.

They danced at the Senior Ball and "Top Hop", arranged by Johan Paulich. They worked on the Burr and Duchess and performed on the stage. Earl Vacariu edited the paper and Joe Hart and Hope Bryne headed Student Government. As members of Blue Key and Cardinal Key they sponsored numerous service activities for the university; and through the Allocations Committee handled the student's funds. President Guisewite was ably assisted by Dick Clark, Marty Galloway, and Shef Pierce.

Led by President Tom Johnson, the Juniors took active parts in all college activities. Swimming parties, picnics and the annual "Sweater Hop" featured their social calendar, while Frances Murphy became the fourth woman editor of the Stater. Bernie Harris guided a victorious Coalition party to two queenships won by Jane McDowell and Ruth Greenwood.

CLASSES

All set for the 4 o'clock class at the Brady

With Norb Zink directing their affairs, the Sophomores settled into a busy routine of campus life. Dean Willey and Tom Harris were the social lions while Peg Curry threw her excessive energy into every phase of extra curricular activity. The Reasch twins sparked the cage squad and Ruthie Recht and Adelaide Snyder slaved long hours on the paper.

Freshmen, dubious about the length of their education, came to a campus preparing for war. Those soon to enter the service availed themselves of the university's enlarged wartime curriculum.

They elected Boh Durivage representative to Men's Union and gave Leroy Haley to the University Theatre. Student Council claimed Bill Keene while Bill Knight and Lon Federico were varsity gridders. Officers included George Bush, Don Wargowsky, Elaine Chamberlin, and Dotty Wolff.

TUESDAY. March 30, 500 of Uncte Sam's aircrew men came, saw and conquered the hearts of Kent's townspeople, administrators, faculty and coeds. With their arrival, all of the extensive facilities of the University were bent towards adequately preparing these men for the task which lies ahead of them. Singing, marching, drilling, and singing some more, their presence on the campus has given KSU the appearance of an "educational military fortress."

military conditioning all play their part in helping the Kent Stater to achieve the sound body with the sound mind. The well developed system of women's sports round out a balanced program in which KSU's athletic officials have always stressed the value of real sportsmanship rather than the temporary glory of victory.

Director of Athletics

GUIDING the destiny of the Golden Flashes is G. Donald "Rosy" Starn, director of athletics. "Rosy" has the important task of scheduling all sports and also serves as a contact man between the Kent alumni and student body. He received his B.S. degree from Wooster College, where he was an All-Ohio selection in football and basketball.

G. Donald "Rosy" Starn

COMING to Kent after some brief service as a professional ball player, "Rosy" has compiled an enviable record in his eight-year coaching period. In addition to coaching football and basketball, war-time conditions forced him to lend his talents to the Kent trackmen. Married to Margaret Langell, "Rosy's" hobbies are his three children, Peggy, Nancy and George.

VINCE FARRAR, 215 pounds of muscle, football knowledge, and experience, came to Kent as the line coach with five years of pro ball playing under his belt. Farrar played three years of collegiate ball at North Carolina, and his big, booming voice could be heard across Rockwell field as he put the footballers through their daily workouts.

JOHN "Rabbit" Starrett, one of the founders of the Ohio Class "D" baseball league came to Kent State as varsity baseball coach and freshman basketball and football coach in 1938. The "Rabbit" was born in Iroquois City. South Dakota, and graduated from Heidelburg college with a major in history and physical education. At college he won letters in baseball, basketball, and football.

Art Wilson completes a "giant swing."

THE Kent State gym team made its debut in the half-time period of the Golden Flash-Lawrence Tech basketball game, January 9. The team scheduled eight performances for the Golden Flash home basketball games.

The returning gymnasts were John Paulich. Ralph Church, and John Hollett. New men were Loder Brooks. Art Wilson, Paul Ives, and Paul Whitworth. Coaching the team again this year was G. J. Altmann who held a banquet for the team at his home. Medals were awarded to the men also.

KENT STATE was downed 56-45 by a strong Youngstown quintet in their first game of the season. After trailing 33-15 at the half, the Flashes closed the gap and at the end of third quarter were behind by just three points. Clayton West was high point man for Kent with eight, while Leo Mogus racked up 23 for the Penguins.

HEIGHT routed the hopes of Kent State in their second game of the season and Lawrence Tech piled up a 71-56 score, winning going away. The Flashes were ahead at the half, 43-41, but the loss of Earl Stewart who went out on fouls, and the sharp shooting of the Lawrence Tech squad proved too much for Kent.

TOLEDO'S Rockets gave Kent its worst shellacking of the young season. drubbing the locals 61-30. Bob Reasch was the Flash high scorer for the evening, dumping in 10 points. Bob Hein was the best defensive player, according to Coach G. D. Starn.

Pete Risser tips one in against Ashland.

DICK REASCH ED KUBUSKI DICK WEIGLE

BALDWIN WALLACE took the Flashes into camp by drubbing them 56-34 on their own two-by-four court. Hewton Mortz and Art Rice shared the villains role by controlling the backboard and were high point men for the evening.

MOUNT UNION'S Purple Raiders swamped Kent State 51-35 in an Ohio Conference game played in Alliance. Mount Union was ahead by 10 points at the half, and steadily increased their lead. Ted Tucker and Bob Hein shared scoring honors for the losers, netting eight points each.

A KRON University avenged their football loss by trouncing Kent's cagers 52-38 in the Akron armory. It was Kent's sixth straight loss this season. Clayton West was high man for the Flashes with nine points, while Dick Weigle and Dick Reasch looped five points each.

HIRAM'S surprising Terriers came to Wills gym as definite underdogs, but before they left they gave the locals the scare of their lives, the final score being Kent 44-Hiram 40. The score was knotted throughout the game, and at no time did one team have more than a three point advantage over their opponent.

THE surprise upset of Ohio basketball was pulled when Kent State dumped Mount Union's Purple Raiders 56-49 in Wills gym. It was Mount Union's first setback of the season, and Kent's fourth straight victory.

IN one of the most exciting games ever played by a Kent State squad, the Flashes edged out John Carroll 59-57 in a game marked by two overtimes. Ted Tucker scored 12 points in the overtime periods, while Bob Hein and Pete Risser took scoring laurels for the evening, with 18 and 17 points respectively.

THE Flashes dropped their first game in six starts to Bowling Green. 51-39. Foul shots cost Kent the game as they netted only five in 19 attempts. The Falcons meanwhile connected on 11 out of 14 free throws.

ENT STATE dropped their second game in a row to Youngstown. 59-57. The game was a heartbreaker for the Flashes who were out for revenge. Dick Reasch was high point man on the floor, putting 25 markers through the meshes.

KENT STATE dropped a 41-59 decision to the fast stepping Toledo Rockets. Kent was leading 27-25 at intermission, but a scoring spurt by Toledo's Dave Minor enabled the Rockets to clinch the game. Minor bagged 19 points for top honors.

KENT STATE hit the victory trail again by dropping Ashland college 54-38. The Eagles were ahead 23-20 at the halfway mark, but Earl Stewart and Dick Reasch broke through the Ashland defense to build up Kent's lead.

USING substitutes for most of the second half, Kent State had little trouble in subduing Findlay's Oilers 69-37. Paced by Bob Hein who tallied 15 points, the Flashes took quarter leads of 13-11, 30-18, and 50-26.

ENT STATE'S Golden Flashes trampled the Heidelberg Student Princes, 55-47. Pete Risser tallied 10 field goals and two free throws for a total of 22 markers to pace the Flashes.

PETE RISSER BOB REASCH BERT MELCHER

KENT STATE fell short in one of the most sensational rallying drives ever witnessed in Wills gym and lost to their greatest rival, Akron, 45-43. The Flashes closed up a 15 point halftime deficit chiefly on the work of Bob Hein and Clayton West.

KENT STATE gained their tenth win of the season over Fenn college. 46-31. Playing the most listless ball of the season, the Starnmen had to fight uphill to trim the Foxes. Substitute center Ed Kubuski was high for the locals netting eight points.

KENT STATE notched their 11th win of the season by beating the Wittenburg Lutherans, 42-38. The Flashes, trailing 21-15 at the half, came from behind to win. Ted Tucker was high point man with five field goals and two fouls for a total of 12 points.

KENT STATE played lifeless ball as they lost to their Portage county rivals, Hiram, 43-35. Kent was never in the game, and never looked like the team that beat the Terriers earlier this year. This marks the first time in many years that Kent will share the county championship with Hiram.

PETE RISSER rolled in 23 points for the best individual record in Wills gym this season as he helped Kent upset Baldwin Wallace, 49-47. Ted Tucker, Bob Hein, and Dick Weigle, all graduating seniors, played their last game before home fans.

KENT STATE hit the lowest of levels by dropping a 64-29 decision to the Wooster Scots in their last game of the season. The Flashes scored only nine field goals, with Pete Risser accounting for five of them. Risser also bagged three fouls, for a total of 13 points.

COACH JOSEPH TABOR

JOE TABOR was appointed head wrestling coach two days hefore the squad opened their season at Ohio U. A 1936 graduate of KSU, Tabor starred for three years in football, baseball and wrestling. Captaining the team in 1934 and 1935. he captured the interstate championship and went to the Olympic semi-finals. An excellent ball player, he forsook a tryout with the Detroit Tigers in 1938 for work in a nearby rubber plant.

Wrestling

ONLY a few veteran wrestlers answered the call of new mat coach Joe Tabor for tryouts on this year's squad. Taking over the duties of head coach when Nick Carter left for the Navy, Tabor experienced a season filled with injuries, ineligibilities, and transportation difficulties. Cancellation of several meets by the weaker teams on Kent's schedule gave the Flashes only two home and home matches with Case and Ohio U.

Looks as if Dave Panlus is in a bad way.

KENT 12, OHIO U. 16

KSU wrestlers opened their season with a 16-12 loss to Ohio university's Bobcats.

The Bobcats won four and the Flashes won four, but Ohio claimed two wins on pins, thus gaining the advantage. Tom Davis, Joe Incorvaia, Bruno Santone, and Duane Hague won for the locals.

KENT 15, OHIO U. 11

DETERMINED to gain revenge for their earlier setback, Kent State took the measure of Ohio university in their second meeting of the season, 15-11.

Bob Heighberger put the Flashes on the road to victory in the first match, and Kent was never headed after that.

KENT 19, CASE 11

WINNING two matches on falls and three on decisions, Coach Joe Tabor's Golden Flashes beat a strong Case squad, 19-11. This brought their seasons record to two wins and one loss.

Tom Davis, Flash 136 pounder, dropped his first college match, losing 7-5. Captain Duane Hague and Bob Heighberger pinned their opponents.

KENT 14, CASE 16

KENT STATE'S wrestlers finished their worst season in 14 years when they dropped their last encounter to Case, 16-14.

The loss of Captain Duane Hague to the army air corps and Bruno Santone through injuries hurt the Flash cause immensely, for it was their replacements who lost on falls.

Earl Stanley trys for a decisive hold in the Case match.

Baseball

KENT STATE finished their baseball season with a record of seven wins and five setbacks. The "Starettmen" took victories over Toledo, Bowling Green, the Ravenna Ordnance plant, and two over Findlay college.

The squad was whipped twice by Wooster, and once by Toledo, Muskingum, and Ashland. Pitching was the sore spot on the baseball horizon at the beginning of the campaign, but it was healed by the right arm of Tony Misko, sophomore hurler.

This year the squad is hard hit by the armed forces who have gobbled up the cream of the team. There will be a baseball team this spring, but the number of games that will be played will be determined by the need of men in services.

Track

KENT STATE closed one of its most successful seasons in the school's history, copping meets with Findlay, Hiram, and Akron by huge margins. Kent uncovered one of Ohio's greatest runners in Tony Klipsic. Klipsic ran the mile, two mile, and 880 in every Kent track meet, and won every time. In the Ohio Conference meet, Klipsic entered the mile event and placed first, being the only man in Kent history to take a first in the Conference meet.

The thinclads suffered their only defeat of the season at the hands of Bowling Green, who beat the locals in a nip-and-tuck meet, 66½ to 64½. This year the coaching duties will go to John Starrett who replaces Joe Begala, now serving in the Naval air corps. If enough schools can be scheduled, Kent will have a team.

Men's

THE department of men's intramurals, this year attempted to institute a program of increased student activity. Under the direction of Student Director Arthur Wilson and Professor G. J. Altmann, the program was developed along the lines of pre-military conditioning, proving beneficial to those students leaving to join the armed forces. Competing in different brackets, fraternity men and independents evidenced their appreciation of the intensified set-up by an amazingly high turnout—the goal in each bracket the beautiful intramural trophy, emblematic of athletic excellence. Chill winds and freezing weather failed to discourage students and the football championship ended in a three-way tie, with Sigma Tau Gamma, Alpha Phi Beta and Delta Phi Sigma each claiming a share of the title.

Intramurals

Following in rapid order, the KMK's annexed the horseshoe and swimming titles; tied with the Betas in table tennis; and with the Delts and Gammas for the basketball crown. Delta Phi Sigma, defending champions, again demonstrated their athletic skill by capturing the gym meet and volleyball title. In the Independent bracket, competition proved extremely close, with the Tappa Nu Kegs leading the way. Hulbert Hoboes and the Y. M. C. A. gave the Kegs their strongest competition and were threatening the lead as the intramural race drew to a close.

BASKETBALL

WHEN winter blizzards swooped down on the campus women athletes sought exercise through the pastime of basketball in Wills gymnasium. Sororities and off-campus teams held intramural contests, while many independent groups got together in their leisure time and practiced.

MRS. MARIE HYDE APPLE Director of Physical Education

KSU's women athletes tried everything from ping pong to Indian wrestling in the year's sports activities. Initiating 5-day, physical-fitness gym, the army and naval reserves were soon copied by the not-to-be-outdone sophomore coeds. Military drill, series exercises and calisthenics, hour hikes and work-outs on the bars, rings, horses and ladders each day helped to keep figures trim and to build sturdy bodies. Mat work, tumbling, and an obstacle course rounded out the required program. Freshmen participated in various team games such as volley ball—in which an individual skill test and a written test were given—basket-ball, cross ball, and soccer.

Delta Sigma Pi

THE first year of Beta Pi chapter of Delta Sigma Pi, national commerce fraternity, has proven to be one of achievement in scholarship, professional activities, and social functions. Monthly the group took time off to enjoy a tasty dinner at the First Christian Church, and then listen to some professional or business leader discuss the problems of the day. Business meetings were held twice a month and field trips undertaken when possible. In November the chapter, led by Faculty member Harold R. Nissley, sponsored a trip for all business administration students to the National Time and Motion Study Clinic in Chicago; while in December Nela Park, General Electric's experimental laboratory in Cleveland, was visited. Under the leadership of John Boesch, the social calendar featured the annual April formal, and included a theatre party and hay ride. Patriotically speaking, the fraternity purchased a $100 war bond to start a post-war building fund; and issued a news-letter to all alumni in the services. With many campus leaders on their roster, the Delta Sigs boasted a higher percentage of their members in Blue Key, men's service honorary, than any other group on the hilltop. Officers are Arthur Durivage, president; Jack Collins, vice-president; Alvin Geitgey, pledgemaster; David Edgerton, secretary; and William Shafer, treasurer.

SOPH-JUNIOR HOP

Talking it over between dances

IT WAS Harry Grunau and his campus favorites that the sophomores and juniors chose for their annual "Sweater Hop". Headed by Jean Hungerford and Dean Willey, the committee used multiple "spots" to achieve an indirect lighting effect. The dance ranked as the outstanding social event of the year for both classes.

TWAS the night of the All Greek and from the grand ballroom of Akron's Mayflower Hotel came the danceable rhythms of Bob Cole and his thirteen-piece orchestra.

Held annually to introduce Alpha Omega's new pledges to the Greeks on campus, this year's dance featured singing competition between the fraternities and sororities. Theta Miller's excellent handling of the affair caused it to be remembered as one of the really smooth dances of the year.

SOFT lights and the solid beat of Bob Chester's orchestra thrilled over 800 music-lovers at KSU's third "Top Hat". Through the efforts of Chairman Johan Paulich and his committee, the gym was transformed into a beautiful ballroom that amazed and delighted the crowd. Intermission brought Student Council President Joe Hart's presentation of Janie McDowell as "Miss Kent State". Gamma Sigma Phi attended the queen as Blue Key and Cardinal Key members assisted in the coronation ceremonies. As the dance itself becomes a tradition, so also is the rain and snow which annually accompanies this jive night on the campus.

Activities

ATION and interest in the extra-curricular activities here at personalities to the fullest degree. Whether it be in publications or music; dramatics or the Pork Barrel; the honoraries or the Workshop—the personal qualities of executive ability, leadership, and character gained from all these phases of student activity are vital to advancement in later life.

CHESTNUT

MIDST nine months of draft worries, flash bulbs continued to be put into action, hundreds of pictures, candid and posed, were taken and an annual project was completed—the 1943 Chestnut Burr.

Cupid intervened in the Fall quarter to take Polly Wikle, assistant editor, off the staff list, while Uncle Sam took his share of staff members also—but the work went on. Newest feature of the Burr this year is that of color photos taken by photographers Wallace Stroud, Phil Rubin and Dick Kreiger. For the third consecutive year, a Burr Queen was selected to reign at the Pan-Hellenic, Inter-fraternity Council informal dance. Miss Dorothy Humphreys of Geneva, Ohio, was this year's royalty.

Directing layouts, arranging pictures, planning new features and sections, besides guiding his staff of writers, photographers, and financiers, was the job of Arthur Durivage, editor-in-chief. Assisting Durivage as right-hand man was business manager, Joseph Marg. Jean Hungerford and Dorothy Roessel served as assistant editors, while Bob Heighberger left his first love—wrestling—long enough to become art editor. Class editors included Frances White, junior class editor, Tom Harris, sophomore editor, and Robert Durivage, freshman class editor. Columnist Roy Apple was in charge of the sports' sections while Ruth Recht was chief feature writer.

RECEIVING first class honor rating for the fourth consecutive time by the Associated Collegiate Press and voted second among college dailies by the Ohio College Newspaper association, the Kent Stater battled draft caused difficulties to round out another year of news.

Veteran journalism major Earl Vacariu guided the staff as editorin-chief for the first half of the year to end his four years' career as University newspaper reporter and columnist. Succeeding Vacariu, Frances B. Murphey took over the editorship in February to complete the term's editions. Backing the new Student Constitution, and in recognition to the servicemen various new columns appeared in the war year paper. A column was devoted to excerpts from servicemen's letters, while Bob Matson and LeRoy Haley wrote a Friday news-letter to the men.

BOARD of PUBLICATIONS

C OMPOSED of nine members, the board of publications has the responsibility of appointing the editors and business managers and solving any problems that arise concerning University publications—Kent Stater, Chestnut Burr and Duchess.

Five of the members of the board are also on the faculty: Frederick Marbut, acting head of the school of journalism, who is also chairman of the board; Miss Mona Fletcher, professor of Political Science; Miss Ada Hyatt, professor of English; Chester Satterfield, head of the department of English; and Eric T. Griebling, also professor of English. John Eckels, supervisor of publications is also a board member along with the three student representatives, Russell Baird, Dorothy Roessel and Norb Zink. Miss Marjorie Hook is the recording secretary for the board. The selection of the Kent Stater editor and business manager is made twice a year. The February selection is announced at an informal banquet and the publication heads for the following year are revealed at the formal banquet in June.

DUCHESS

FROM editors Mayhew to Lyon to Rosen KSU's humor magazine, the DUCHESS, featured, as a salute to University servicemen, the first campus Service Queen, Miss Elaine Chamberlin, freshman from Cleveland Heights, in its initial issues in the fall of '42. Additions to its contents this year also included a victory section containing articles from Washington, D. C., and each issue saluted one of the country's top name bands among which were Harry James. Fred Waring, and Jimmy Lunceford. When Ligon Mayhew, Fall quarter editor resigned in December. Bill Lyon took over as headman, hut, due to a draft board call, Lyon was editor for the February issue only. Herb Rosen took over in his place to finish the year's editions. Business managers were four in number with Jack Collins, George Cordea, John Williamson, and Bob Baker handling the finances. Covering sports for the magazine was the job of Roy Apple, junior, while Ruth Recht, sophomore, handled society notes. Original cartoons, sketches, and covers were made by art students Stan Mine, Barbara Colley, and Al VanAuker, while Phil Ruben was staff photographer and Alan Kerckhoff. staff writer.

UNDER the able direction of E. Turner Stump, University Theater featured its twelfth season with the production of three consecutive hits. First to be offered to Kent's theatre-goers was the celebrated Broadway success "Arsenic and Old Lace". Starring the inseparable combination of Bill Guisewite and Stan Monse, the play introduced Stella Greenbaum and Mary Haines in the roles of the "eccentric" aunts. Singing ushers, vaudeville acts and a "gay nineties" atmosphere helped "Pure as the Driven Snow", an old-fashioned melodrama, prove the outstanding attraction of the year. Held to a one-night stand because of male lead Stan Mouse's call to the Air Corps, the vehicle presented a new star, Peggy Calhonn, as the "poor working girl", Purity Dee; and played before an enthusiastic SRO crowd. Following the performance Guisewite and Monse made their farewell appearance by entertaining with some of the skits for which they have become famed.

Climaxing the production schedule for the year, Director Stump staged "Letters to Lucerne", a timely war-time drama with Kitty Liptak, Mary Haines. and Alan Hammack in the leads. Officers were Bill Guisewite, manager: Stan Mouse, assistant manager: Adelaine Snyder, secretary-treasurer; and Bob Raful, master of the house.

Working hand in hand with University Theatre was Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatic society. Founded at Fairmont College in 1927 with the assistance of E. Turner Stump, the fraternity restricts its roll to those with an active interest in dramatics; its membership never exceeding 15. Candlelight meetings were held bi-monthly in the "Green Room", to which only chapter members are admitted. The group assisted in the presentation of the Freshman play "The Tightwad" and helped plan the very successful Theatre formal. Officers were Bill Guisewite, president; Betty Gorlich, vice-president; and Kitty Liptak, secretary-treasurer.

CIVILIAN PILOT TRAINING

TAKING over half of Lowry Hall, freshman women's dormitory, for their new residence, Civilian Pilot Training cadets really brought home the significance and importance of the present world conflict. Under the direction of Adrian Van Wyen, director of the C. P. T. course and Ed Curry, instructor, the men saw plenty of action, including the opening of the new airport. However it wasn't all work, and many a cadet could be spotted at social dancing on Wednesday night and at big "U" dances.

TWICE over station WADC Akron during each week this year, members of the Kent State Radio Workshop presented all-student dramatic skits and faculty fact-question programs under the directorship of Howard Hansen, instructor in speech.

Student talent included such personages as script writers Adelaide Snyder, and Frances Allen, engineers George Ebel and Dick Weise, and producer Bob Raful. Organized in the form of a radio club in which anyone interested in any type of radio work namely announcing, directing, engineering, or script writing might try his hand, the workshop completed its second successful year of existence.

once again saw organizations, dormitories and individuals compete for trophies presented each year by Women's League and Men's Union. Beta Gamma sorority members dressed in old fashioned costumes and presented "Memories in Song", while Kappa Mu Kappa fraternity went to the modern extreme with its comedy skit "A Day With The President". The Four Roses harmonized on old time musical selections for the unaffiliated trophy, and Engleman Hall carried away its second straight trophy for its "Priorities" skit. John Boda also did a repeat for his artistic piano work and took his third trophy.

SADIE HAWKINS

CAME November 12 and Sadie Hawkins, notorious gal of Dogpatch, Ky., had her day again this year with an all-University costume celebration in Wills gymnasium sponsored by the social committee. Johan Paulich was in charge of the festival assisted by master of ceremonies, Grady Jackson, and the "Pickup Five" hillbilly quintet. Freshman Frances Farson took home "the bird" when she captured the coveted title of "Daisy Mae" and a pet chicken while Freshman Frank Bond was awarded a rabbit for his characterization of "L'il Abner". Dick McGinnis was selected as the best "Hairless Joe" by Judge Kenneth Nichols, feature writer for the Akron Beacon Journal. The 700 attendees saw Bob Heighberger christened "Lonesome Polecat" and Dorothy Meyers and Dorothy Starkey get the prize as "The McGulch Twins".

Standing—Guisewite, Zink, Harris, Hewitt, Cianciola, Clark, Schamel, Muzzy, Forsberg, Keene, Greenwood.

NDER the vigorous leadership of President Joe Hart, student government enjoyed the most active year in its recent history. In September delegates were sent to the International Student Assembly held in Washington, D. C.; which resulted in the group's sponsoring a United Nations Heroes Convocation at which representatives of Russia, Great Britain, China and the Netherlands East Indies were speakers. Council successfully resumed the sale of Freshman caps and assisted that class in setting up a permanent organization. All student elections were supervised; and trophies awarded to the winning fraternity, sorority and dormitory in the Homecoming decorations contest.

Proposed New Constitution

President Hart experienced the double honor of presenting Miss Marilyn Soule as Homecoming Queen and Miss Jane McDowell as "Miss Kent State". Early in the Fall Quarter, the body, with the advice of the Business Manager, set up an Allocations Committee, through which over twenty thousand dollars of activity fees was allocated and expended by the students themselves. Student social committees were appointed which successfully handled the Pigskin Prom, Sadie Hawkins and Top Hop dances. After months of intensive effort Council presented the proposed new constitution to the student body in December, and was rewarded with an overwhelming majority for ratification. Officers were Joe Hart, president; Hope Byrne, vice-president; Marguerite Cook, secretary; and Jane Higgins, treasurer.

Conducts Honor Assembly

WITH a membership of BMOC's, Blue Key, national men's service honorary, spent the year actively living up to its ideals of good citizenship and service to the University. At the request of the faculty the chapter assisted during the activities of Freshman Week and served as ushers at all University Theatre productions. Decorations for the Homecoming Dance were arranged; while members collaborated with Cardinal Key for the coronation ceremonies at the Top Hop. Mr. O. B. Law, Business Manager of the University, was installed as a honorary life member, along with twelve new actives at the first formal initiation banquet in November. The fraternity aided the Dean of Men in planning a special assembly which dedicated a Roll of Honor to KSU's men in military service. Under the leadership of Ray Gallagher and Mary Enbanks, the chapter conducted the men's division of the Polio "Drive for Dimes". A new ritual ceremony, written by President-elect Herbert Myers, featured the formal tapping of seven new members during the second quarter. Officers were Joe Hart, president: William Guisewite, vice-president: Scheffel Pierce, secretary: and Loder Brooks, treasurer.

INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCIL

REPRESENTATIVES from each fraternal group make up the membership of Interfraternity Council, guiding hand of KSU's fraternity affairs. Strengthened by the adoption of a new constitution, the Council performed an outstanding service to the University by creating a closer relationship between the Greeks on campus. First activity sponsored by the organization was the traditional "Round Robin" in which all sororities visit each fraternity house. Under the chairmanship of Arnold Carlson, this year's function was a marked success. The annual Interfrat-Pan-Hellenic Ball, held at Moulton Hall in March, featured the presentation of Miss Dorothy Humphrey as the 1943 Chestnut Burr queen. At the Interfraternity Dinner, arranged by James Wynkoop, over 150 satisfied Greeks heard E. Turner Stump, head of the University's school of speech, expound the benefits of "Fraternalism. Officers for the past year were William Clark, president; Howard Mack, vice-president: Jack Collins, secretary: and Alvin Geitgey, treasurer.

PAN-HELLENIC LEAGUE

OFFICIALLY opening the rush season Pan-Hellenic arranged the Round Robin Tea, Oct. 4 for all University women interested in pledging and the six campus sororities threw open their houses for inspection. Pan-Hellenic is composed of two representatives from each sorority and holds its meetings every other week on Monday night before sorority meeting to discuss rush rules, plans for formal rush parties, dances, the bridge tournament, scholarship banquet, contributions to local drives, and problems common to all the organizations. With Inter-Fraternity council, the organization co-sponsored the annual sorority-fraternity dance at which the Chestnut Burr Queen was presented. Committee members for the dance, which was an informal held at Moulton Hall, were Betty Breen, Hope Byrne, Dottie Roessel and Jane Quimby.

Betty Chapman was appointed chairman of a standing committee composed of one representative from each sorority to take charge of rush lists and preferential bidding. Frances Wren and Dottie Roessel were appointed co-chairmen for the annual Scholarship banquet in the spring, while Jane McDowell was in charge of arrangements for the Fraternity Round Robin in March. Dr. Gertrude Lawrence became the new advisor for Pan-Hellenic, replacing Mrs. David Olson. Marguerite Cook. Alpha Omega sorority, was president of the group; Jane Higgins, Sigma Sigma. vice president; Betty Breen, Beta Gamma, secretary; Carol Chamberlain, Pi Kappa Sigma, treasurer.

NETEEN hundred forty-three marked the opening of Manchester Lounge, an official place for University men to lounge—and study—on campus. Who provided it? Men's Union. KSU's more than 1,000 servicemen sent thanks to their colleagues for keeping them in touch with their Alma Mater through the Kent Staters and Duchesses sent as a result of Penny Drive contributions. Men's Union originated the Drive. Manchester "Saturday Letters", senior men's dinners, and the annual Intramural cup race were also under the jurisdiction of Men's Union. Came January and a big celebration—the New Year's Ball. Men's Union and Women's League got together and produced one of the top informal hops of the three quarters' activities. Leader support in the roll of activities was furnished by Ralph Church, president; Johan Paulich, vice-president; and Scheffel Pierce, chairman of the executive committee.

OPENING the fall social season with the annual Homecoming Dance, this women's national honorary fraternity co-sponsored with Blue Key, entertainment for visiting alumni and the presentation of the Homecoming queen. Composed of 13 women who attained membership because of their scholastic record, leadership, and extra-curricular activities, Cardinal Key has spent an active year as a women's service group. Jane Higgins co-chairmaned the Armistice Day convocation, honoring former Kent men now in the service. All members assisted with the Polio Drive, served as ushers for University entertainments, carried Penny boxes, and took charge of arrangements for Campus Night. Wielding the gavel was Carol Sayers; Cornelia Kuckenbacher acted as vice president; Betty Morris, secretary; Betty Chapman, treasurer.

WITH the war effort for their cause, all campus organizations got together and formed an Office of War Activities through which a Victory Book Drive was launched to send current literature to University men in service; two hundred dollars was collected for the Red Cross drive, a Share-the-Ride program was started, and entertainment was planned for the 500 air crew students stationed on the campus. Peg Curry, Akron sophomore, was chairman of OWA assisted by Doris Yarger, recording secretary, and Linnea Saukkonen, corresponding secretary. The first all-University non-quarantine function for the air crew men was sponsored by OWA in the form of an informal get-acquainted dance in Wills gymnasium. Members of OWA include one representative from each organization, making 18 in all.

Presented Don Cossacks

MATCHING pace in activity with their sister organization the Young Men's Christian Association again brought the Don Cossack Chorus to the campus and chalked up more laurels for their record book. Dr. John F. Cuber and Dean Mary L. Smallwood spoke on "War Marriages" and Sherwood Eddy captivated his audiences with his talks on "Total War Effort", "Russia", and "India". Roy Apple carried off the Ping Pong trophy sporting his handicraft before nine other men. The entire organization went all out on the Penny Drive and co-chairmaned the World Student Fund Drive with the Y. W. C. A., Y. W. Hayrides, informal meetings around the camp fires, and in the home of Dr. Ronald Spacht brought the men closer in brotherhood. There were many informal gatherings and discussions with the women's group. President of the Y. M. C. A. for the year was Frank Crofot; vice-president, Ed Christian; secretary, Al Simon.

PROBABLY the most active and effective group on campus this year was the Young Women's Christian Association. Composed of one hundred and twenty women and a well rounded program including sponsorship of intellectual assembly speakers, hair stylist and hayrides, the organization really proved itself one of the most versatile at the University. On the intellectual side: Dr. Everett R. Clinchy, president of the national conference of Christians and Jews; Rabbi Barnett R. Brickner, head of the Euclid Avenue Temple in Cleveland and Rev. Daniel B. Cronin, of John Carroll University. addressed the student body through the courtesy of the Y. W. C. A. President of the organization for the year was Jean Garee; Peggy Currey, vice-president; Georgia Hutton, secretary and Doris McCartney, treasurer. Advisors were Miss Jeanne Parrish, Mrs. J. L. Blair, Miss Gaynell Neff and Miss Phyllis Pearson.

PI KAPPA DELTA AND ART CLUB

Directed Student Forensics

HEADED by Scheffel Pierce, Pi Kappa Delta, national speech honorary fraternity, has completed another year directing student forensic activities and judging intramural participation.

Publication of the "Soapbox", a small paper containing highlights and gossip about the department of speech, was carried out by co-editors Jane Higgins and Scheffel Pierce. Mr. James Holm, professor of speech, was the advisor for the fraternity, which consisted of twelve members during the past year. President of the organization was Scheffel Pierce, Jane Higgins was vice-president, and Carol Sayers, secretary-treasurer.

Arranged Dance Decorations

BOOSTING the largest membership in history, the Art club spent an active year opening a Student Gallery, presenting the Student-Alumni exhibition, and sponsoring speakers such as Glenn Shaw on "Camouflage" and Dr. Morris Baum, who spoke on "Art in the War". Probably the real laurels for the club's work should be handed them for the swell job of decorating they did for the University dances, Pig Skin Prom, New Years Ball, and Top Hop. The club enjoyed some social activity with the mid-year and spring parties. John Panlich was president of the organization; Martha Jean Lauderbaugh, vice-president: and Florence Riehl, secretary.

LAMBDA PHI AND INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Wrote Service News-Letter

WITH Uncle Sam taking the majority of the male populace from the journalistic realm, members of Lambda Phi, women's honorary journalism fraternity, contented themselves with writing news letters to servicemen and following journalistic pursuits. Frances Murphey edited the Kent Stater; Jean Hungerford and Dottie Roessel assistant edited the Chestnut Burr; and Donna Payden and Luella Cordier worked for the local Kent Courier Tribune as society editor and photographer. Donna Payden also acted as president of Lambda Phi; Marjorie Bell, vice president; Frances B. Murphey, secretary; and Jean Hungerford, treasurer.

HANDICAPPED because of members employed in defense industries, the Industrial Arts' social calendar was limited to a fall weiner roast under the chairmanship of Bob Deal. Monthly meetings, with talks by the members of the Industrial Arts faculty were the principal activity of the organization, and a handicraft display exhibited the work of the members. Officers were Eckhardt Sautter, president; Bob Deal, secretary-treasurer; and Professor J. W. Dirkson, faculty advisor.

DOING work for the Fighting French
War Relief was a major part of the French club's activities for the past year.
The organization also presented plays and skits, heard distinguished speakers, enjoyed picnics at which they sang French songs and entertained at a tea.

Aided French War Relief

The club subscribed to several French newspapers to keep up on current events. Miss Helen Machan, professor of French, is the organization's advisor. Margery Gilcrest was president; Eunice Burs, secretary-treasurer; Mary Ellen Hoffman and Harriet Sadler, co-social chairmen.

ZETA IOTA AND NEWMAN CLUB

Donated Time to Defense Activities

DOING their bit toward aiding the war effort Zeta Iota, women's honorary business fraternity, pitched in by donating shorthand, typing and general business training to University defense activities.

Composed of thirteen women who are all majors in secretarial science and have a 3.0 cumulative in their major, the group is guided by Miss Cleo Crow, acting head of department of secretarial science. Officers for this year were Ann Puz. president; Theta Miller, vice-president; Linnea Saukkonen, treasurer; Geraldine Skora. corresponding secretary; and Jean Davies, secretary.

KEPING up with the modern trend of affairs, the Newman club, national organization for Catholic Youth, presented "War Marriages and Catholicity" as their current debate topic for study club meetings. The male members of the club showed a good representation in athletic contests and the entire group participated in parties and dances. The Rev. John Holcomb, acted as advisor for the organization and officers for the year were Phillip Trapp, president; Carmela Frell. vice-president; Joan Norris, secretary; George Farres, treasurer.

PSI LAMBDA OMICRON AND HOME ECONOMICS

Promoted Silk Drive

IN co-ordination with the Home Economics club, Psi Lambda Omicron, honorary home economics fraternity, aided the silk drive, point ration forum and other Home Economics club projects.

Organized just three years ago Psi Lambda Omicron is open to outstanding members of the home economics department. Scholarship, leadership and character are the yardsticks for measuring future sorority members. Among the big social events of the year was the initiation of six new members and the dinner at the Robin Hood.

COLLECTING old silk and nylon stockings for the government, presentation of a forum on point rationing for the benefit of club women of Kent, and working for the Kent Welfare and Ravenna Hospital has been only a small part of the effort put forth by the Home Economics club. For the twenty-sixth year this organization has shown itself to be one of the real service groups on campus. Consisting of sixty-six members the club collected more money for the Penny Drive than any other non-Greek organization. Big social events of the year were the Christmas formal banquet, and the Senior Honor party. The club is composed of Home Economics majors and minors and is organized to furnish social activity and give professional information to the members of the department. President of the club was Arlene Chamberlin; Cornelia Kuchenbacker, vice-president; Ellen Whims, junior vice-president; Julia Steiner, recording secretary; Dottie Milligan, corresponding secretary; Eva Medved, treasurer; and Elfrieda Wachcie, social chairman.

Aided Freshman Girls

WOMEN'S League welcomed 670 women students to the campus this year entertaining them at the annual Big-Little Sister teas. Margaret Wedding was chairman of the affairs assisted by the upperclass women who had been selected as councilors. Acclimating freshmen women to campus life constitutes a major feature of the League's activities.

Other major activities included parties for transfer women, co-sponsorship with Men's Union of the Pork Barrel, and a farewell banquet for graduating senior women. The aim of the League is to render the greatest and best possible service to all KSU women, to promote their welfare, to provide better acquaintance among the women on the campus, to foster school spirit and offer opportunity for student expression in all matters. Bettie Morris was president, Jane McDowell, first vice-president; Doris Yarger, second vice-president; and Ruth Renz, secretary.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

THE Wesley Foundation, young people's group of the Methodist Church, is one of the most active organizations of its kind on the campus. Its program for the past year included panel discussions with students and faculty participating, a choral group under the leadership of Beryl McHugh. and a play presented by the drama group, entitled "Parting at Innsdorf". and directed by Jean Barger and Wilbur Adams. The themes for the group during the three quarters were "Personal Problems", "Problems of Religious Faith", and "The Question of Social and International Relations." The officers were Charlotte Lose, president; David Edgerton, vice-president; Virginia Staib, secretary; and Robert Chiles, treasurer. The committee heads were Herb Myers, Virginia Partee, Louise Fagley, Marjorie Fankhauser, Jerry Elliot, Jim Carson, and Jean Barger.

ELEMENTARY EDUCATION AND K-P CLUBS Held Valentine Party

FOUNDED only two years ago in the fall of 1941 with the purpose of promoting interest, cooperation, and loyalty among students in elementary education, the Elementary Education club really kept its prospective teachers busy with a Halloween and Valentine party, a tea, panel discussion and lectures by professional speakers.

Miss Susanne Koehler has acted as the club's advisor and the officers for the year were Elma lmobersteg, president; Dorothy Hamilton, vice-president; Anna Seruch, secretary; and Mary Ellen Mehl, treasurer.

Sponsored Nursery School

CARRYING out its purpose of rendering service to the campus and the community, and working for the welfare of young children, the Kindergarten Primary club sponsored the local South Nursery School.

In addition the group was active in Red Cross work, and purchased two twenty-five dollar war bonds. On the social side a Freshmen get-together was held, as well as the annual Christmas party, a children's party, and a War Service party. Patricia Graham was president: Betsey Case, vice-president: Betty Jane Leadenham, secretary; and Helen Reuter, treasurer. Advisors for the organization were Miss G. Hazel Swan and Dean Jeanne Parrish.

STUDENT LUTHERAN AND MUSIC CLUBS Promoted Lutheran Fellowship

FORMED to build up a strong national and international fellowship of Lutheran students and to develop healthy social life and strong Christian friendships, the Student Lutheran Association has carried out an active and well rounded program during the past year. Membership in the organization is open to everyone of the Lutheran faith. The group is supervised in its meetings and social activities by Miss Emma J. Olson, and the local Lutheran pastors, the Reverend Zeigler, and the Reverend Hamme. Student officers were Ruth Koch. president: Eckhardt Sautter, vice-president: and Ruth M. Snyder, secretary-treasurer.

ORGANIZED to establish good morale, attitude and fellowship within the music department of the University, membership in the Music Club is open to all majors and minors in the field. Under the guidance of Mr. Kenneth Byler, faculty adviser, the group has enjoyed a number of record concerts and social events throughout this year; and assisted in the permanent organization of Chi Mu, music honorary. Officers for the year were Norma Baldwin, president: Beryl McHugh, vice-president: Hazel Hawley, secretary; Esther Blake, treasurer: and Lois Youtzy, publicity chairman.

PHRATERES AND PHI ALPHA THETA

United Off-Campus Presidents

ORGANIZED last spring, the Chi Chapter of Phrateres, an Off-campus house president's organization, is now recognized as an active group on this campus.

Phrateres was founded at the University of California in 1924 to provide the opportunity for all women students to share in the social life of the campus. Officers include Doris Strong, president; Florence Riehl, vice-president; Alice Henderson, seretary; Bea Shaheen, treasurer.

Discussed Current Events

DINNER meetings were the monthly feature of this national history honorary fraternity, speakers and discussion of political and historical interest highlighting these affairs.

Requirements for membership in the organization include a 3.0 in history and a 3.0 cumulative. Dr. Louis A. Tohill, professor of history, acted as the advisor for the year. Mary Martin served as president for the group during the fall quarter and upon graduation was succeeded by Wanda Baynes. Other officers were Jean Schilder, treasurer, and Naomi Poe, secretary.

CHRISTIAN FOUNDATION AND PHI SIGMA XI

THE Christian Foundation, affiliate of the Christian Church, was organized last summer and began active work last fall. In keeping with its aims, which are religious education, worship and personal guidance through counciling, chapel services have been held at intervals during the year, as well as many informal discussions. The group has also sponsored several parties. The leadership of the foundation is in the hands of a cabinet composed of students under the advice of Dr. John Cuber and Rev. Dana S. MacDonald of the Kent Christian Church.

Promoted Science Interest

ORGANIZED in February of this year by students Cornelius A. Papp and Robert Dawson for the purpose of promoting interest and better understanding in biology, chemistry, mathematics and physics. Phi Sigma Xi, boasted a membership of twenty-eight members who had had fifteen hours in their major field, a 3.00 average in their major field and a 2.5 cumulative average.

Programs presented by representatives of the included departments consist of subjects designed to give all members a general understanding of all fields of science. Cornelius A. Papp was president; Robert Dawson, vice-president: Pollyanna Pozniko, secretary; and Norma Jackson, treasurer.

STUDENT FORENSICS AND ALLOCATIONS

Stimulated Student Interest

Dividing its phases of activity into intercollegiate, extension and intramurals the Student Forensic Association really got under way into a busy year. Elizabeth Erfley was in charge of the intercollegiate division which included debating in the Northeastern Ohio Novice and Varsity tournament at Case and Western Reserve, the Ohio Conference Women's Debate at Capital University, and the Tan Kappa Alpha Progression Discussion Tournament at Chicago.

Herb Myers took charge of extension service whereby student speakers were sent to clubs and service organizations. Jane Higgins was director of the intramurals in which a number of the fraternities, sororities, clubs and individuals entered for organizational and individual awards.

A LLOCATING, handling, and organizing all University fees, the allocations committee, made up of a representative from each campus organization, got under way this year as an approved portion of the new Student Constitution. Meeting each quarter, the committee made the decisions which regulated all distribution of funds after being approved by the Student Council and then by O. B. Law, assistant treasurer of the University. Initial chairman of the committee during the fall quarter was Ray Gallagher, junior, who was replaced by Jane Higgins, senior, when he was called to active duty in the Army Air Corps. Ruth Greenwood served as committee secretary for the entire school year.

H. P. E. AND LYNN CLUBS

THE H. P. E. Club. composed of Physical Education majors. has sponsored many activities this year, chief among them being a first aid course for the members, a weiner roast held in the fall and a spring picnic. The club also had charge of one night of social dancing. The club was directed by Bob Hein, president; Joe Fortunato, vice-president; and Jeanne Zeizer, secretary-treasurer.

Held First Aid Course

Gave Christmas Aid

COMPOSED of Christian Science young people, the Lynn Club was organized in 1938 under its present advisers. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Shafer. Although primarily a social group, current religious problems are taken up in forum discussions.

Activities for the past year included social functions: the sponsoring of Christmas baskets for local needy families: and the writing of round-robin letters to former club members now in the armed forces. Officers were Doris Ringler, president; Gilbert lves, vice-president; and William Gilchrist, secretary.

... Now, as the final copy from this year's Chestnut Burr hits the presses, we pause for a few minutes to relive this year—a year filled with headaches and priorities—a year that seemingly has passed all too swiftly. But through all the confusion that existed, we remember with appreciation the guidance and assistance rendered by many persons not on the staff. It is to these persons that the editors now say . . .

Thank You

Mr. Gordon Brightman and C. Jay Smith, of the Jahn and Ollier Engraving Co., for their refreshing ideas on copy and pictures.

Mr. John Eckels, supervisor of publications, for his advice and assistance in making this volume possible.

Mr. Fred Marbut, faculty adviser, for his time and continued interest in the Chestnut Burr.

Mr. Lyle Tanner, of the Judson Printing Co., for his patience and experience in printing and layout work that has been of inestimable value.

. . . and to all those innumerable students and faculty members whose time and cooperation aided in this issue of the Chestnut Burr.

HIS style conscious freshman is developing a worth while habit: he is buying his wardrobe needs at GREEN'S.

Because of the fact that Walkover shoes, Fashionknit socks, Manhattan shirts, Hart Schaffner and Marx suits, Alpagora topcoats, Mallory hats and Donegal and Revere sportswear are sold here—proof is added to the statement that "you'll find nationally advertised merchandise for your wardrobe" at GREEN'S. A cordial welcome awaits your next visit. Come in soon.

JF you were to count shirts at any house party, you'd probably find more Arrow's than any other shirt.

The Hitt is a favorite of Undergrads and Alumni alike.

They like the Hitt because it has a starchless collar that stays as neat as a pin all day long! It simply refuses to wrinkle or wilt!

If you are going to a house party this weekend; better stop by today for your Arrow Hitt.

COE LIVINGSTON
