

Summer 2000

PERMITS

The vehicles of all university students and employees must display a valid parking permit while parked on campus.

SELLING PERMITS

If someone tries to sell a permit to you, DO NOT BUY IT! It could be a lost or stolen permit. You may be fined $50, have your car towed and be referred to Judicial Affairs for disciplinary action. Only Parking Services can sell Kent State University parking permits.

15-MINUTE METERS

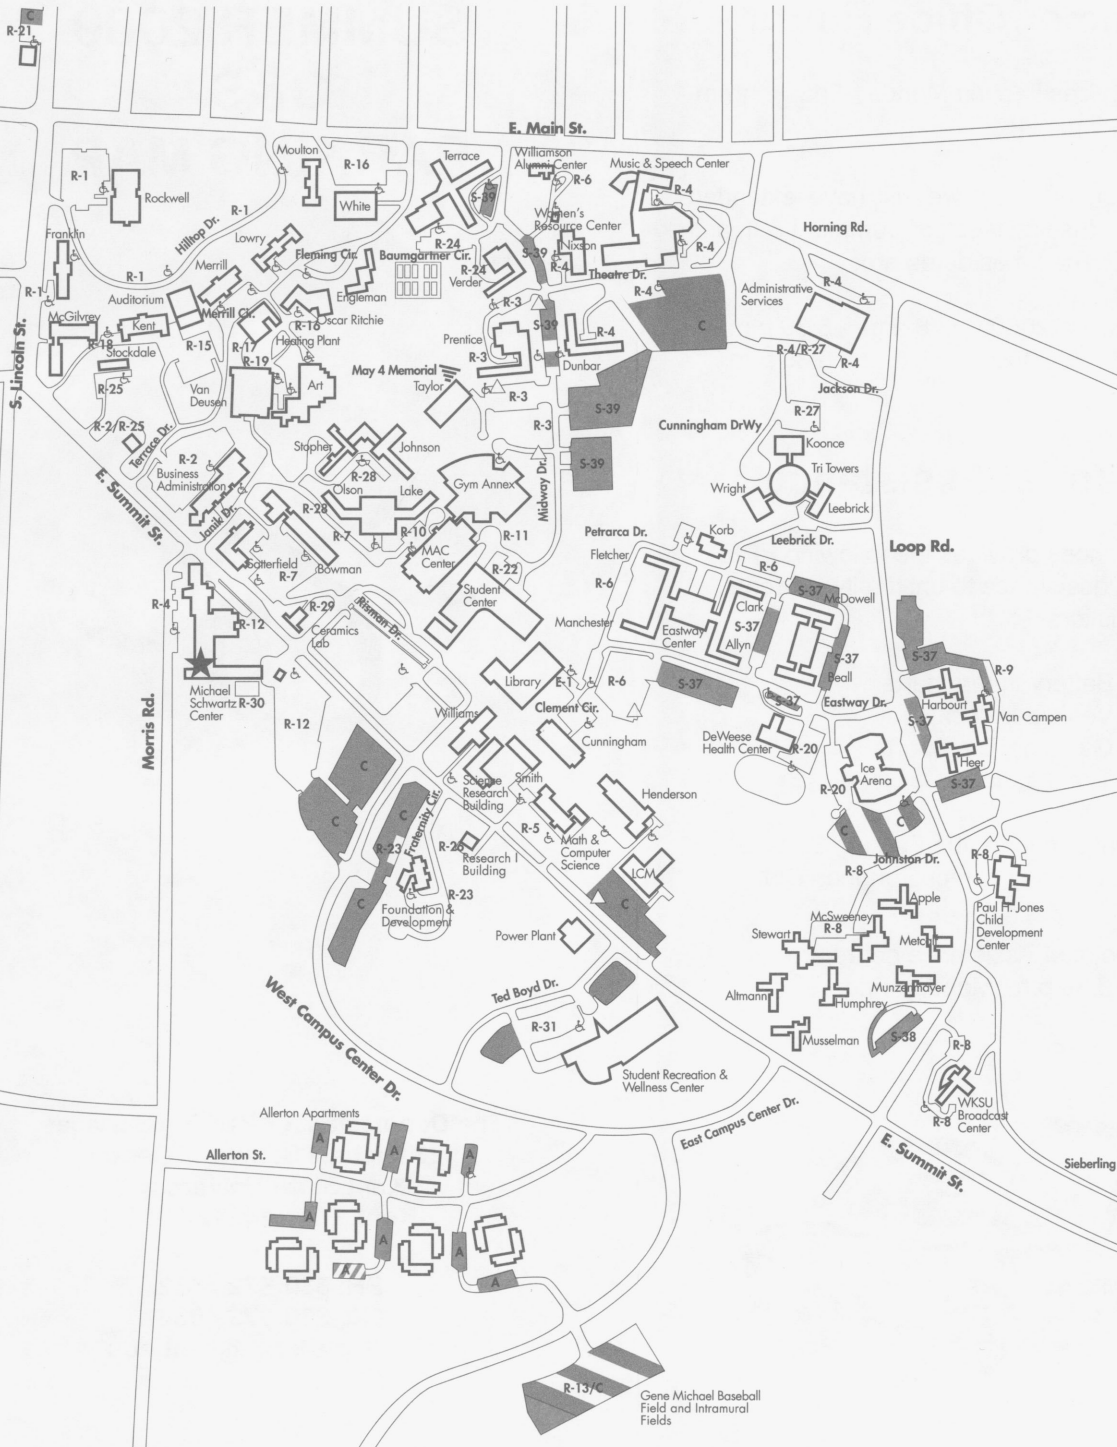

Bright yellow meters are located near most campus buildings for short-term parking. Please deposit the appropriate coin. Do not exceed the 15-minute time limit.

VISITORS

Visitors are required to obtain and display a valid parking permit or pay the required fees on campus. Residence hall visitors may obtain free overnight and/or weekend permits from residence hall desks. The Kent Student Center pay lot or parking meters located in most areas are convenient options for daytime visitors.
